Rest in peace

The image features two roses, one smaller and one larger, positioned in the upper right quadrant. They are set against a textured, mottled background of warm, earthy tones, including shades of beige, tan, and light brown. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, with delicate petals and subtle shading. The overall composition is centered and evokes a sense of quiet reflection and sympathy.

The pain of losing Gina and Andrew has been devastating to me. I can not even imagine the pain you must feel as parents and grandparents. I am so sorry for your loss and I pray that God will comfort you, and wrap His arms of love around you and give you a peace that passes all understanding.

So sorry

December 12, 2009

Hi Linda and Dennis,

It's you cousin Mary. This is a really beautiful site...cool thing to do. I wish I could've met Gina, I bet she was a beautiful person. And her son too.

My best to you and your family at these difficult times.

I think of you so often, and pray that your pain is relieved as time passes on. There's no getting over it, but there is moving along, and I pray that you find comfort in your memories and know that the day of reuniting will come in the blink of an eye!

Love always,

Mary

My deepest condolences

December 12, 2009

My deepest condolences. May these few words from the Holy Scriptures bring you comfort in your time of grief...

John 11:32-45

32 And so Mary, when she arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, fell at his feet, saying to him: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." 33 Jesus, therefore, when he saw her weeping and the Jews that came with her weeping, groaned in the spirit and became troubled; 34 and he said: "Where have YOU laid him?" They said to him: "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus gave way to tears. 36 Therefore the Jews began to say: "See, what affection he used to have for him!" 37 But some of them said: "Was not this [man] that opened the eyes of the blind man able to prevent this one from dying?"

38 Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb. It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: "TAKE the stone away." Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: "Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days." 40 Jesus said to her: "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth." 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Laz´a-rus, come on out!" 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his countenance was bound about with a cloth. Jesus said to them: "Loose him and let him go."

45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;

I'm so sorry for your loss of your family i cant even emagine the pain you have in your heart. I love you and pray for you everyday and ask god to give you strengh.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Lora Ellis

All growing up, we were together. She used to spend that night at our house and at night she would get homesick...so I would put on shows for her to make her laugh. We also would lock Dena out of the house, and when she would try to climb in the kitchen window, Gina and I would pour buckets of water on her from the upstairs window. I am laughing right now thinking about all the funny memories. I also used to go on vacation with Aunt Linda, Uncle Kenny, and Gina all the time. It seemed like whenever I went, there was a huge thunderstorm, blizzard, or natural disaster! We all began to joke and call it "Creech Curse"...but they never stopped taking me with them. I remember going to a concert with Gina and the breaks going out on her car when we were on the freeway, and I remember her going with me as back-up when I went to break up with an old boyfriend. A one time I moved in with Uncle Kenny and Aunt Linda, so Gina and I shared a room. We used to stay up all night talking, laughing, and playing Dr. Mario. We shared make-up, hairspray, clothes, jewelry, dance moves, food, a bedroom, vacations, school friends, church friends, boyfriends (sorry Cal), wedding plans, pregnancies, laughs, tears, and love. But most of all we shared a piece of each others heart....I think my greatest memory with Gina will be when our hearts are reunited in heaven and I get to see her again. Until then I will be thinking of her always.

I have a lifetime of memories...

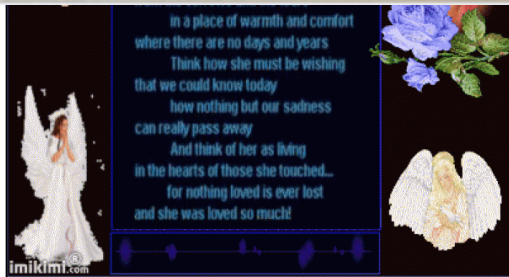

sleepovers, chasing boys, youth group trips, making videos, sharing secrets, and getting into trouble. One of my favorite memories of Gina is when I first got my driver's license - Lora, Gina, and me were out having fun - Lora and I locked Gina out of the car and made her chase us all the way down Gratiot in her flip flops!!! I don't think we ever laughed so hard - I take that back, we always laughed hard when we were together. Gina was a beautiful person, with an incredible sense of humor, and when she loved - she loved hard. Gina would do anything for the people that she loved. The loss of my cousin has devastated me and I am angered that her life was taken from her. I will never forget her sweet smile, that silly giggle, and those long eyelashes. Gina will always be remembered.

♥ I remember when gina was born ,she didn't have much hair but she did have beautiful eyelashes, i used to babysit her and i would put on surfer girl from the beach boys lp and would dance with her she loved it. i felt so honored to be her godparent .I loved going shopping with her for deer widows shopping days which was when your husband went hunting the wife would get to go shop and get deals she always took me. we would get up at 4am to xmas shop at the stores. we also went to alot of tim mcgraw concerts she is the one that got me hooked on country music. I will never forget her beautiful smile and her helping everyone she new.
